FIRST PAYOUT VERIFICATION

Finish verifying to get your $8.0

Your item has been purchased, and the buyer's payment has been received. It will be available to you after the seller verification is complete. Since this is your first sale, the payout is on hold until a one-time review of your seller account is finalized — a standard procedure required before the first funds transfer.

Click the button below to confirm. Once the review is complete, your payment and a USPS shipping label will be automatically issued, and you'll see the order status in the app as well as receive an email with all the instructions.
